Autographs

The progress and achievements of a school are not the result of the efforts of any one man or organization. Rather, they reflect the attitudes and spirit of the entire parish, faculty, and student body. Therefore we, the staff of Reflections '69, dedicate this edition, Volume I, to the many individuals who have contributed their time, interest, and energy toward establishing Good Shepherd High School as the unique academic institution that it is today.

Sister Rose Francis, Principal of GSH, gives her undivided attention to an Algebra I student.

Father Jerome Heist makes himself comfortable in Religion I.

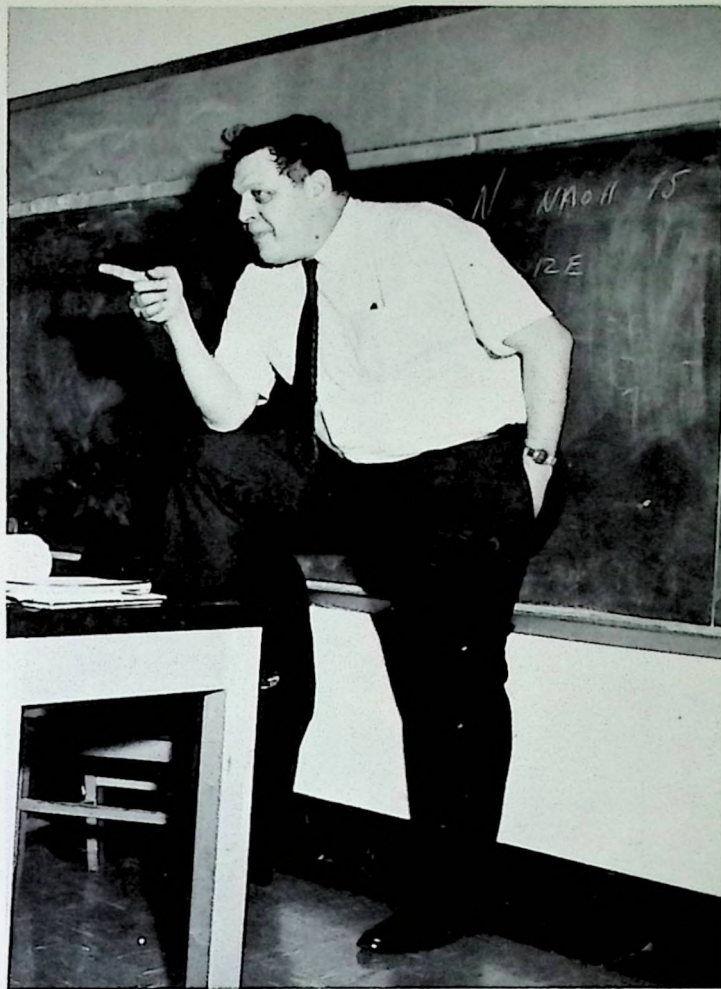

Mrs. Wanda Carl enlightens her Shorthand II class on the wonders of the business world.

Sister Rose Paulette gleefully reaps the harvest of a pop quiz.

Mr. Robert Rieckhoff strikes a ready pose as he once again reminds his chemistry class of the "brains that they've never even used yet."

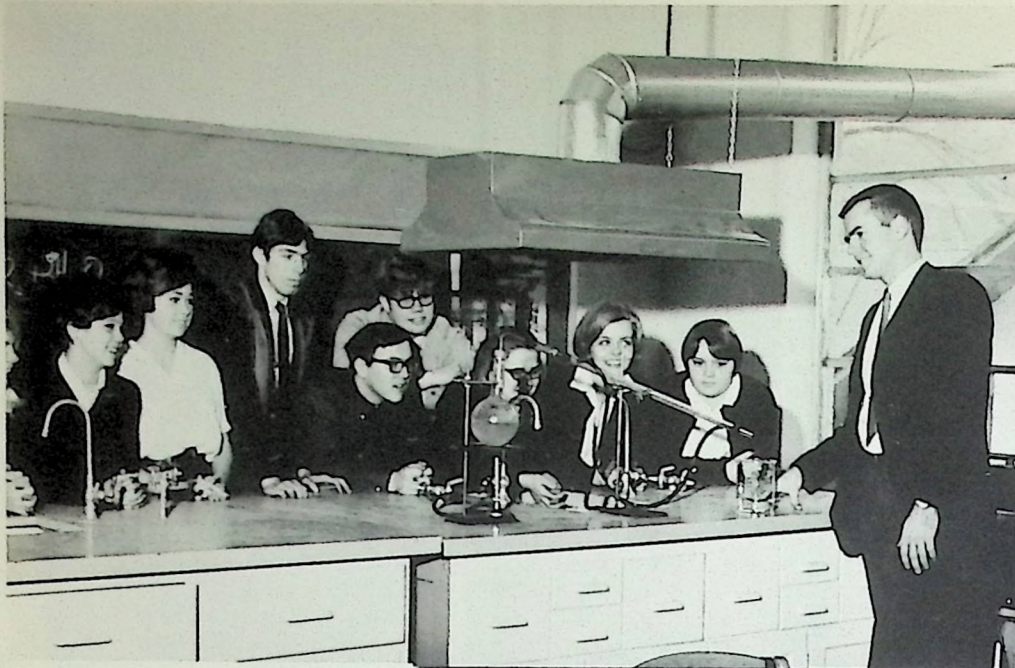

Sister Mary Eileen explains Pepys' Diary while the class looks on intently? ! ?

Mrs. Christine Fitzgerald aids Paula in her typing project.

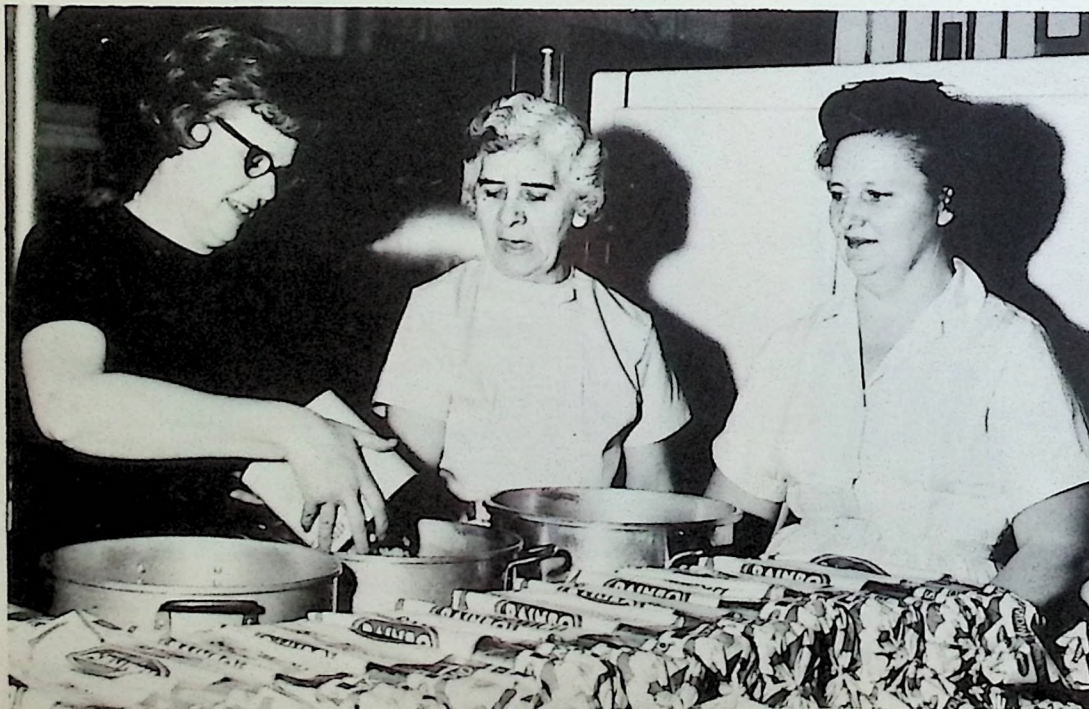

Mr. Richard Ernst delivers a brief treatise on the theory of relativity as his Physical Science class looks on and on and on. . .

Sister Mary Evangeline aids her Latin II students as they labor intently over the exploits of Julius.

Mrs. Estes, Mrs. Evins, and Mrs. Hayden prepare our "Food for Thought."

Star-Spangled Girl Debuts

After a long wait, the Irish Youth Center has finally presented its first production, "The Star-Spangled Girl." The play, written by a local author, tells the story of a young girl who is orphaned and taken in by a family. The production was a great success, with the audience thoroughly enjoying the story and the performances.

During the past year, Good Shepherd High School has witnessed a rebirth, not only in organizational structures, but also in attitudes. Both the student body and the faculty have been infused with a new dynamism and a deep sense of pride in Good Shepherd. The staff of Reflections '69 sincerely hopes that the various activities initiated this year – the annual, the page in the State Journal, the talent show, the class-sponsored trip to Beaumont Inn, the senior retreat – and most importantly, this new spirit are
